

Activities of the NATIONAL CULTURAL CENTRE BRATISLAVA – SLOVAKIA

“By the support given to the local culture we try to cultivate the natural need of today’s society to become joint creators of culture and cultural life in their respective communities.”

More than sixty years of operation at national and international level

Support of local and regional culture

Services and counselling for private and non-governmental organizations, including individuals carrying out activities in the field of culture in various locations of Slovakia

Research of the Slovak local culture

Organization of workshops, competitions and festivals with international participation

Education of professionals in the field of culture under local conditions

Documentation of events of local and regional cultural importance and its dissemination

COMPETITIONS IN THE FIELD OF INTEREST ART ACTIVITIES

INTRODUCTION

national project, series of the competitions with workshops, seminars and symposiums, festivals and exhibitions

METHODS (generally)

active participation, enjoyable group experience, appropriate teaching methods to achieve goals within the seminars and workshops

TARGETED GROUPS

children and young people, adults, seniors who are interested and are active in the field of the amateur art

MAIN CHARACTERISTICS

system of competitions in visual art, dramatic, dance, music art, recitation; support of the interest in art activities, skill acquisition

AIMS AND RESULTS

support for the new amateur artistic creation, professional guidance of the amateur artistic creation and activities